

Creation

Genesis 1:1-25

In the beginning, God created. God said, "Let there be light."

There was evening and morning.
Day one.

God separated the waters under the dome and above. God called the dome "sky."

There was evening and morning.
Day two.

God created the dry land and the seas. God said, "Let the earth grow plants." God saw it was good.

There was evening and morning.
Day three.

God made lights in the sky, sun, moon, and stars.

There was evening and morning.
Day four.

God made birds for the sky and sea animals that swim.

There was evening and morning.
Day five.

God made animals to live on the land. And God made human beings in God's own image. God saw everything that was made. It was supremely good.

Group: There was evening and morning.
Day six.
